My dear Sir

Re admission of Candidates to the newly to be opened School

Sir, I write to ask you to kindly obtain sanction of the Govt: to my admitting five more than the originally fixed number viz 20.

For the twenty seats originally

V

Sanctioned at my request I shall take only those that have passed the Inspectionship or a higher examination.

For the other 5 seats I propose I wish to have some that belong to the Sanitary Department already & are working in one of the Branches thereof & one or two that have passed in Civil Engineering such as Surveying

Levelling - planning &c & one that has worked in the Vaccine Institute - I wish to state these things they have not passed the Matriculation Examination King's College in very early years, & communicate this Same to me as I wish to dispose of the admission question
